

The Daily Intelligencer,
PUBLISHED BY
FREW, HAGANS & HALL.
Office, 10 Quincy Street.
TERMS OF THE DAILY:
By Mail, per year, in advance, $7.00
Six months, $4.00
Three months, $2.00
Delivered by Carriers, per week, 15
TERMS OF SEMI-WEEKLY:
Per year, in advance, $3.00
Six months, $1.50
Three months, $1.00

The Intelligencer.

PANIC AT VIENNA.—A telegram from the Austrian Capital, this morning, reports a wild panic in the Bourse there yesterday, in consequence of the suspension of a leading firm, whereby a large amount of stocks were thrown on the market. The Government has been petitioned to interfere and afford measures of relief.

CAPT. JACK is altogether too smart for the people who profess to be carrying on the Modoc war on behalf of the United States. On the 7th he fell upon a lumber train, killed three of the escort, captured a lot of horses and mules and burned three wagons. If he keeps on in this way Capt. Jack will have to be promoted.

The concluding ceremonies over the remains of Bishop McElvaine took place yesterday at Cincinnati. We make the announcement with a sense of relief, inasmuch as the news reporters have dashed up the dead Bishop almost every day for the past fortnight. If any more bishops are to die—and we mean no irreverence—we trust they will be considered enough to die nearer home. The point we mean to suggest is that the prolonged obsequies and display now so fashionable over the remains of distinguished people are not only a needless trial to friends, but they are tedious to the public and essentially vulgar.

THE VACANCY IN THE SUPREME COURT.—The name of Senator Conkling having been mentioned in connection with the position on the Supreme Court bench, much vacant by the death of Mr. Chase, opinion has been expressed that he is not eligible for the position on account of the following provision in the Constitution of the United States:

"No Senator or Representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either House during his continuance in office."

Mr. Conkling's time as Senator expired on the 3d of March, but he (having been re-elected) was sworn in for the new term on the next day. The act increasing the pay of the Chief Justice having been passed prior to the expiration of Mr. Conkling's last term, does not affect his acceptance of the office now, should it be tendered him. Mr. Edmunds is not eligible to the position, as his time in the Senate does not expire until March 3d, 1875, and the act increasing the salary of Justice was passed during the term he is now serving.

Attorney General Williams and Wm. M. Evans are also spoken of for the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench, and many are of the opinion, also, that the present Attorney General will be the man.

WATER AS A CAUSE OF TYPHOID FEVER.—The Medical Department of the London Local Government Board has just issued an important report on the cause of typhoid, or enteric fever in London. Of the various ways in which water may be made the vehicle for distributing the fever, the report gives the following as illustrations: "At Terling Place ten persons were attacked with enteric fever, and all of a large family, drank water from a particular well into which it was discovered that a cesspool leaked. At Dickon-Bent, in Essex, a certain well was polluted, and out of eighty-eight drinkers from that well forty-two persons were attacked; while only one other person out of a population of two hundred and six in the village was attacked. At Nunney, a village in Somersetshire, having a population of eight hundred, and thirty-two, Dr. Ballard records seventy-five cases of enteric fever as occurring in four months. The cases were limited to a remarkable way to families who obtained their water from a well in the village. The water received the sewage of several houses up stream. All Hawsburg Upton in Gloucestershire, a village of six hundred and fifty-seven inhabitants, within a short period ninety-five cases and fourteen deaths from enteric fever occurred in a following of the successive pollution of different wells in the village. Burghage, a village in Leicestershire, as recorded by Dr. Gwynne Harries, had an outbreak of enteric fever from the same cause last year. No one took the fever in the village except persons who certainly or presumably drank water from a particular well, and every house supplied from this pump was subject to infection."

A STARTLING EXCEPTION.—A recent medical writer says: "Sleep whenever you can; in the cars—anywhere, when you get a chance—the great want of the age is sleep." This is not always safe advice to follow, as a Lawrence gentleman knows to his sorrow. He was recently afflicted with a bad cold, and to cure himself of it resorted to the method of bathing his feet in warm water and drinking a tumblerful of gin and molasses, prescribed by an aged and respected friend to the family. Having got everything in the way of carrying out the prescription, he sat down by the stove, his feet in the water, and his head on a cushion, and in a few minutes he was fast asleep. He awoke at 3 o'clock in the morning, wondering why he was alone. Going down stairs, he was horrified to find his legs dead asleep in his chair, the fire out, his feet still immersed in the water, over a cake of ice was formed, and an empty tumbler on the chair beside him. His cold isn't a bit better.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH.—This paper will appear next week in flying colors. It will be published by Thomas S. Hartley & Co., and edited by Gen. R. S. Hartley and Thomas S. Hartley. It promises to wake the snakes.—Conservative.

A Herald dispatch from Madrid yesterday says that in the recent battle with Doragary, near Batoli Navarra, the government troops were totally routed, losing 200 killed and many prisoners.

The Intelligencer.
VOL. XXI
WHEELING, W. VA., SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 10, 1873.
NO. 215.

BY TELEGRAPH.
ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.
Exclusively to the Intelligencer.

(By the Western Union Line, Office Northwest cor. of Main and Monroe sts.)

THE LATE JUDGE CHASE.

List of the Pall-Bearers—Telegram from President Grant.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The following is a complete list of the gentlemen who have been invited and have consented to act as pall-bearers at the funeral of Chief Justice Chase: Hamilton Fish, W. T. Sherman, Whitelaw Reid, Charles O'Connor, Garrett Smith, William W. Havemeyer, Gideon Welles, Wm. Cullen Bryant, William M. Everts, Irwin McDowell, Hiram Barney and J. J. Cisco.

The following telegram was received from President Grant: "Your dispatch announcing the death of the honorable Chief Justice is received. His family and the nation have my condolence in mourning a faithful public officer." Admiral Palo, the Spanish Minister, also telegraphed his most sincere condolence to the family of his highly valued friend. Senator Sumner was invited to act as a pall-bearer, but his precarious health made it necessary for him to decline.

RESOLUTIONS BY NEW YORK ASSEMBLY AND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The Chamber of Commerce to-day adopted resolutions expressive of the loss to the country by the death of Chief Justice Chase and appointed a committee to attend the funeral. The Mayor has requested that flags be displayed at half mast throughout the city.

ALBANY, May 9.—The memory of Chief Justice Chase was honored to-day in the Assembly by the adoption of appropriate resolutions and the appointment of a committee to attend the funeral.

THE COFFIN AND ITS ACCOMPANIMENTS.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The house of Mr. Hoyt, No. 4, West 33d street, where Chief Justice Chase died, was visited to-day by many former friends of the latter. The body has not yet been prepared for burial, and none but relations are admitted to view it.

Word has been received from President Grant expressing his desire to be present at the funeral.

The body will be placed in an elegant rosewood coffin with heavy silver mounting, and three handles of the same metal on either side. There will also be silver handles on the head and foot. The inscription on the plate is engraved in plain script, and reads as follows: "S. P. Chase, Chief Justice, born January 13, 1793; died May 7, 1873." A broken column is formed of tea roses, carnations, and other choice flowers, around which myrtle, ivy, and laurel are twined, the whole resting on a bed of fragrant earth.

At the house this morning and with other floral gifts will be placed beside the coffin.

BAR MEETING AT BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, May 9.—The bench and bar of this city held a meeting to-day in respect to the memory of Chief Justice Chase, Judge Liles of the United States District Court presiding. Reverend John Chase, president of the bar, presided over the exercises and public services of the deceased as worthy and honored successor of John Marshall and Rogers B. Taney, during the speech Mr. Johnson briefly reviewed the opinions of the late Chief Justice in some most important cases decided by the Supreme Court, and Chief Justice of the Circuit. Appropriate resolutions were adopted which will be spread upon the records of the courts of this city and be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

CAUSE OF MR. CHASE'S DEATH.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Dr. Perry says that the first cause of Judge Chase's death was a rupture of a cerebral artery, causing a violent hemorrhage into the substance of the brain. Paralysis of the left side followed. During the last twelve hours of his life, there was no evidence of vitality except a labored breathing. Dr. Perry said that from all he could learn, Mr. Chase was quietly sleeping when the blood vessel broke, and that the fatal stroke was the result of slight convulsions occasionally during the day, but they gradually grew more and more feeble. Dr. Metcalf said that the brain was terribly bruised by the bursting of the blood vessel. The immediate cause of his death was compression of the brain. Dr. Clark, after describing Judge Chase's condition when he first saw him, said that he suffered no pain and died an easy death.

THE BODY TO BE TAKEN TO WASHINGTON.—EXECUTIVE ORDER.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The body of the Chief Justice will be brought here on Saturday night and will lie in state in the Supreme Court chamber on Sunday, where the public will have an opportunity to view the remains between the hours of 10 and 12. The body will be placed on the same catafalque upon which were laid the remains of Mr. Lincoln. Several officers of the Supreme Court left here in company with other officials to attend the funeral exercises in New York to-morrow.

The following Executive order has been issued:

"The President announces with deep regret the death of Hon. Salmon P. Chase, Chief Justice of the United States, who closed a life of long public service in the city of New York on the 7th inst., having filled the office of Senator of the United States, Governor of Ohio, Secretary of the Treasury, and occupying a high position in the exalted position of Chief Justice of the United States. The President directs that the public offices in Washington be closed on Saturday, the 10th inst., the day of his funeral, and that they be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, and that flags be displayed at half mast on the public buildings and forts on national vessels on the day of the funeral, in honor of the memory of the illustrious dead. By order of the President.

(Signed) HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

Washington, May 9, 1873.

MEXICO.

EXCITING SCENE IN A MARYLAND COURT.

Two Murderers on Trial Break Out of the Prisoners' Dock and Assault an Officer.

Their Recapture and Prompt Conviction.

BALTIMORE, May 9.—On the night of January 2d, last, Mrs. Mary Ann Lamplsey, an aged lady, was murdered in this city and her house robbed of several hundred dollars, during the absence of her husband. Some time afterwards Joshua Nicholson, who married a granddaughter of Mrs. Lamplsey, and Thomas H. Whalen, alias Hallahan, were arrested, charged with the murder, and indicted. The case was removed to the Circuit Court of Anne Arundel, and the trial was commenced at Annapolis on Wednesday, and concluded on yesterday.

During the trial Deputy Marshal Frey, and Chief Detective Crane, of the city, testified relative to the confession of the murder of Wade by the prisoner.

A special is the American from Annapolis this morning, says that when the trial of the two criminals, Hallahan and Nicholson, was resumed, it was found that the two had worked the jury on both sides. Subsequently he was brought into court with Nicholson and the trial was proceeding, the State Attorney making his closing argument, when Hallahan suddenly sprang from the prisoner's box, and rushing at Deputy Marshal Frey, struck him violently over the head with a heavy piece of iron wrapped in a stocking. Nicholson also sprang out of the box and rushed towards Frey, when an indiscriminate melee ensued.

The scene was fearful and exciting. Detectives Pontier and Shaffer rushed to the rescue of Marshal Frey, to protect him from the murderous assault of Hallahan, and struck on the head and badly cut the blood streaming over his face. Marshal Frey, although terribly wounded, was able to assist in subduing the prisoners, both of whom were soon overcome and handcuffed. After the excitement had subsided the trial of the case was resumed, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree.

FUNERAL OF BISHOP McELVAINE.

CINCINNATI, May 9.—The funeral services of the late Bishop McElvaine took place at Christ Church in this city to-day, commencing at 11 o'clock. The body was borne from St. Paul's Church, and placed in the hearse, and carried to Christ Church. Ten clergymen and sixteen laymen acted as pall bearers. The order of the procession was, the standing committee of the diocese, clergy of the Episcopal church, clergy of other churches, trustees and faculty of Kenyon College and Theological Seminary, vestry of the Episcopal church, vestry of other churches, citizens and strangers.

At the door the Bishops, consisting of Bishop Bedell, Bishop Lee, from Delaware, three Bishops from Canada, met the corpse at the door and repeated the passage beginning "I am the resurrection and the life. I who have died, I will live again." We brought nothing into this world and it is certain we can carry nothing out of it. The anthems from Psalms, 30th and 119th were read respectively, all standing after which the "Gloria Patria" was sung. The lesson from First Corinthians, 15th chapter, 30th verse, was then read, followed by the hymn "Just as I am." Sentences were then read, among which were "In the midst of life we are in death." Dr. Burr, of Portsmouth, the old Presbyterian, then read "For as much as it hath pleased Almighty God to send the soul of our deceased brother, we therefore commit his body to the ground, looking for the general resurrection in the last day, and the life of the world to come through our Lord Jesus Christ." Then was sung "I heard a voice from Heaven." After which Bishop Cummings, of Kenyon College, presiding, the Bishop Bedell pronounced the benediction.

It was Bishop McCluskey, of Michigan, that met the body at the door and Bishop Lee, of Delaware who read the lesson. The services were closed at 12 o'clock. The body was followed by a large procession of carriages to Spring Grove cemetery, where the body was interred. Other denominations nearly all attended. A large number of Judges of the courts were also present. The entire services were exceedingly impressive.

HAVANA.

HAVANA, May 7.—Insurgents attacked the town of Zanybar, but were repulsed by the Spanish troops. The Spanish troops attacked the entrenched camp of the insurgents at Majoro Granes, aided by artillery, and dislodged the insurgents. The Spanish commander reports a loss of four killed and sixteen wounded, and says the insurgents lost sixteen killed and many wounded. A Spanish steamer has arrived here with 400 Carlist prisoners, who have come to reinforce the Spanish army in the field.

HAVANA, May 8.—General Benegasi is dead.

A boat from the English gunboat Fly received Bidwell, the alleged Bank of England robber, and carried him to the English steamer Comanche, which left this evening for England. Bidwell is in charge of English detectives and his wife is a passenger on the Comanche. It is reported that Bidwell will turn State's evidence on his arrival in England.

The officers and crew of the steamship Moro Castle have testified before the Spanish authorities the case of Wilson, the New York thief who attempted to rob the English detectives on board the Moro Castle during the voyage from New York to this port. Wilson will probably be liberated soon and banished.

A dispatch from Santiago De Cuba to-day says that Kelley Chivers there yesterday and was placed in Moro Fort. The trial will be continued there.

Weather Report.

FOR THE GULF STATES, northerly and northwesterly winds, lower temperature, cloudy weather and rain. For the south Atlantic States, partly cloudy weather with possibly occasional rain, northwesterly to northwesterly winds and increasing pressure. For the northwest and central States, cloudy weather, with occasional rain, northwesterly winds, lower temperature, partly cloudy and clearing weather. For the Ohio Valley and northwestern to the upper lakes, generally cloudy weather, occasional rain, clearer and colder with northwesterly winds. For the lower lakes and Middle States, lower pressure, occasional rain, and cloudy weather clearing south and west of Pennsylvania. For Canada and New England, falling barometer, easterly and southerly winds, cloudy and rainy weather.

At Morristown, N. J., Louisiana, the murderer, refuses to take food, and is trying to starve himself to death before Thursday next.

THE CINCINNATI FESTIVAL.

CINCINNATI, May 9.—Yesterday, in some respects, was the great day of the Musical Festival, inasmuch as the interest was concentrated upon two things, the choral singing of the public schools, and the admirable rendering of the 9th symphony, culminating in a spontaneous and splendid ovation to Theodore Tilton.

But in the number of attractions, enthusiasm and attendance, to-day has excelled any preceding day. About five thousand persons attended the matinee, while in the house to-night eight thousand persons were gathered, each apparently with increased interest in the great musical event.

At eight o'clock to-night the house was filled, the Executive Committee declined to sell further tickets and closed the doors against a thousand persons who sought entrance. The afternoon was given up largely to orchestral music, interspersed with solos and duets from Miss Cary, and Messrs. Rudolphsen, Varley and Whitney. "The Gipsy Life," "Cherubin and Seraphim," were repeated by the chorus with better effect than when first sung. To-night the chief attraction was the "First Walpurgis Night," by Mendelssohn. This, like the 9th symphony, has been looked to with interest, the difficulties in the way of its execution having awakened concern not unlike that produced with the symphony. A success little less than was attained last night. Mr. Thomas caused it to be sung in faster time than at any of the rehearsals, but the chorus sang with singular precision and force, and impressed the audience as favorably as any of the choral efforts. In this Miss Cary and Messrs. Varley, Rudolphsen and Whitney also participated. Rudolphsen acquitting himself so that there were loud calls for him after the conclusion. The 33d Psalm was sung by female voices. The remainder of the exercises, with the exception of the hallelujah chorus, which was rendered with such powerful effect, was of a more popular character, and the first of the programme, the Hon. G. F. Davis appeared on the platform and introduced Stanley Mathews, who said in view of the success which now crowns their efforts, the delight it had afforded our people, the great profit experienced in the rendering of the public taste, and the advantage of making Cincinnati the center of exalted interest in instrumental music, a strong desire had been expressed that this festival should become an annual one. This announcement was followed by tremendous applause. When this subsided, the Judge read an address, and by a number of prominent citizens, and addressed to the Executive Committee, thanking and congratulating them, the directors, and the chorus in view of what they had accomplished, and expressing the wish that the necessary steps be taken to make the Festival a permanent institution. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

Col. George Ward Nichols, President of the Festival, appeared and thanked the gentlemen for whom Judge Mathews had spoken, for their kind sentiments recognizing the festival as the obligation of the Executive Committee who were under to Mr. Thomas and all actively engaged and specially to the citizens who had rendered them such generous support. Col. Nichols remarks were followed by great applause which had hardly subsided when the Judge read a letter from Mr. Thomas, who had been unable to attend, in which he said that he was deeply gratified by the success of the festival, and that he was sure that the festival would be a permanent institution. The audience responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

After a little delay, Mr. Thomas showed himself upon the stage, which was the signal for applause far more tumultuous than had greeted him the night before. The audience, in the midst of their sentiment and desire, to which they responded with loud cries.

News From the Lava Beds.

Capt. Jack Wins Another Success—He "Lays" for a Train and Makes Some Captures.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—The following was received from the Lava Beds to-night: "Lava Beds, May 7, via Yuma, May 9.—The Modocs made another sortie to-day on a train returning to camp on what is known as 'The Island,' whether the Quartermaster's and other stores have been removed from the former department at the south corner of Lake Lake for lumber, capturing 11 mules and 3 horses, and burned 3 wagons. Three of the escorts, Private Burgess, Company B, 21st Infantry; Private Evans, Company I, 21st Infantry, and Private Burns, Troop G, 1st Cavalry, were wounded while repelling the sortie, May 5th, at 8 A. M. Captain Lydecker, Engineer of the corps, and the artist who accompanies him, Mr. Maybridge, have since their arrival, been actively engaged taking views and sketches, topography of the Lava Beds. Maybridge has taken 50 remarkable views. The Modocs squaws who were taken prisoners at the first battles at the Lava Beds, April 13th, 16th and 17th, were forwarded yesterday by O. C. Applegate to the Yainox reservation. Several large fires are burning in Captain Jack's camp, within plain sight of this place."

LAVA BEDS, May 8.—All the wounded convalescent will be moved to-day and placed en route to Ft. Klamath under charge of Assistant Surgeon Malling. Acting Assistant Surgeon J. Semig is progressing very favorably under his treatment. Private Benue without date, 15th Infantry, died on the evening of the 6th in hospital from the effects of wounds received on the 26th ult.

LAVA BEDS, May 8.—415 P. M.—Day before yesterday two squaws who lived in Fairchild's rancho, One Eyed Dixie and Varnish Chakus, were sent out by him through instructions from Gen. Davis to reconnoitre the position held by the Modocs at the time of their attack on Capt. Thomas to report on their strength and to ascertain, if possible, whether they had received any reinforcements. The squaws returned yesterday, having seen the Modocs, but without date. They saw no Modocs, the latter being, as Capt. Jack had left for some other point, where water could be obtained. On receipt of this information from the Warm Spring Indians, Donald McKay was ordered out with instructions to push forward to the point above alluded to, to discover the Modocs. The same hands, or, in the foregoing were signals from Captain McKay that the Modocs had vacated their fortifications and had gone to some other point not definable just now. The indications now are that the Modocs are entirely out of the beds, but in what direction they are gone, or whether they went singly, or in small bands, or en masse, it is impossible to surmise. The Warm Spring Indians are reported to have found the bodies of Lieut. Canston and three soldiers. They also found two dead Modocs in the vicinity of first mentioned place. A portion of the command will go to-morrow for the purpose of bringing in the bodies of Lieut. Canston and those who died with him on the field.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Wm. Fanning, who arrived at Yreka to-night, says he met Bogus Charley and a squaw at Four Mile Creek, thirty miles northeast of Yreka, yesterday. Mr. Fanning claims that he gave up his gun, but Charley refused. He did not say where he was going, but said he was tired of fighting. Two months ago he stopped at Fairchild's rancho after leaving the Lava Beds. Other persons make the same report of seeing the warrior.

The return of Gen. Canby left Portland on the steamer to-night. Lieut. Harris, wounded in the recent fight with the Modocs, is reported sinking rapidly. It is thought he cannot recover.

LOUISIANA.

Reinforcements for the Kelloggites at St. Martinsville.

BRASHEAR, LA., May 9.—The United States troops will leave here by land, not being able to secure transportation. No Metropolitans are in town, and everything is quiet as far as Centerville.

FRANKLIN, LA., May 9.—Forty-three mounted Metropolitans, commanded by Mike Conney, passed here at nine o'clock this morning unmolested. There is nothing now to prevent their forming a junction with those at St. Martinsville.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Marshall Packard telegraphed from New Orleans to Attorney General Williams that, having warrants for the arrest of L. Blancher and ten other leaders of the insurrectionary organization, he called upon Gen. Emory, who furnished a military force of two officers and forty men to make the arrest. This force arrived at Brashear City by rail, and proceeded at once to Centerville, St. Martinsville for want of transportation by water. Their arrival there will, he believes, end the contest.

THE NINE MEN LEADER AT ST. MARTINSVILLE. LIEUT. BUREAU'S CAPT. AND DISAPPEAR.

The Peayne's New Iberia special says Col. De Blane has abandoned his camp at Fourneaux, and mysteriously disappeared, to the great consternation of Badger, who has mounted all the men he could command, and stationed detachments in different portions of the surrounding country. Forty-five Metropolitans, by way of Franklin, are expected here to-night.

NEW ORLEANS, May 9.—Three companies of the 19th Infantry under Capt. Bradford left this evening for Brashear to join other forces there, a waiting detachment to St. Martinsville. Gen. Smith will command the expedition.

Henry Ware, of Point Auguemes, Aberville Parish, to-day received $5,000 in gold from the Louisiana Fair Association, capital prize in the recent lottery.

BRASHEAR CITY, May 9.—One hundred and seventy United States troops, Gen. Smith commanding left by steamer at 11 P. M. for St. Martinsville. All quiet.

River News.

CINCINNATI, May 9.—River forty feet, rising. Arrived—Minneapolis, for Wheeling. Departed—Emperor, for Marietta. Andra, Wheeling. Weather showery and pleasant.

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—Raining this afternoon. River about stationary with 8 feet 10 inches in the channel. Business dull.

Portrait of Lincoln Ordered.

ALBANY, May 9.—The Assembly has passed a resolution appropriating $3,000 for a full length portrait of Abraham Lincoln, to be placed in the Governor's room of the Capitol.

Admiral Winslow, of Kearsarge fame, fell in an apoplectic fit yesterday at Washington, but may recover.

FOREIGN.

VIENNA.

A Wild Panic on the Bourse.—The Government Petitioned to Suspend Transactions.

VIENNA, May 9.—There was a wild panic on the Bourse to-day, caused by the failure of a leading firm, which threw a large amount of stock on the market. So great was the excitement that business became impossible. The speculators have petitioned the Government to order a suspension of transactions for several days and adopt measures of relief. During the height of the panic Rothschild and Schey were faulted on the Bourse.

The number of visitors to the Exhibition since the opening has been from twelve to sixteen thousand daily.

AN UNPLEASANTNESS IN THE MANAGEMENT OF THE EXHIBITION.

LONDON, May 9.—A special dispatch to the Standard from Vienna states that a serious difference has arisen between Arch Duke Charles Louis, the patron, and Baron Schwartz, superintendent, of the universal exhibition, in consequence of the backwardness of arrangements. The Emperor siding with the Baron, Arch Duke Charles has taken umbrage and left Vienna.

ITALY.

ROME, May 9.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day, Signor Visconti Venosta, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, made a speech in favor of the bill abolishing religious corporations. He said that Italy was not compelled to preserve the obligations of a certain, by which these bodies existed, but at the same time, he should leave the Generals of the religious orders, the means of keeping up their communication with the Catholic world. Italy, in abolishing temporal power, had contributed to the progress of the century, but she must refrain from attacking spiritual power.

SPAIN.

LONDON, May 9.—It is reported that the Spanish Minister to Great Britain had made a demand upon Earl Granville for the prosecution of the London Carlist Committee who are soliciting funds to aid the cause of Don Carlos.

A dispatch from Lisbon says a number of Carlists took passage on a steamer which sailed from that port for Liverpool to-day.

Death of John Stuart Mill.

LONDON, May 9.—John Stuart Mill died at Avignon, France. The intelligence reached here at two o'clock this afternoon.

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, May 9.—John Murphy is the name of the burglar shot dead in Newtown, Long Island, a few weeks since, while attempting robbery. He came to this city from Chicago, and was well known in the western and southern States.

The gambling saloons of all classes were closed last night by the proprietors in anticipation of that duty being done by the police.

The Cotton Exchange, to-day, resolved to encourage the laying of an additional cable and to take stock of the new company.

E. C. B. Garcer, Consul General of Uruguay, was arrested to-day, on the charge of defrauding a ship building firm of Boston out of $11,000.

It is now said that the Judges of the Supreme Court, general term, who have denied Stokes' motion for a new trial, will not sentence him pending the decision of the Court of Appeals to which the case must next be taken.

At the annual meeting of the National Temperance Society, held to-day, Wm. E. Dodge was elected President and J. N. Stearns Corresponding and Recording Secretary. Receipts for the past year $33,982; expenses $33,842. Resolutions were adopted appealing to Congress to appoint a commissioner to enquire into the liquor traffic throughout the country and to pass a general law prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in the United States.

Application for letters of administration for the estate of Charles M. Barras, author of "Black Crook," was made to-day, but opposed by the counsel of Hiram D. Barras, brother of the deceased, who is on his way from San Francisco. An adjournment of ten days was granted. Alfred M. John and W. M. Barras, are also claimants to the estate.

The funeral of James E. Hayes took place this afternoon at St. Ann's P. E. Church. A number of theatrical people attended.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The Court of Appeals passed appropriate resolutions in respect of Chief Justice Chase and adjourned.

Gen. Sherman received the following dispatch last night:

STEAMER NEWS.